

Illustrious Alumni

WALTER PIETY MORGAN

Now retired after a long career as president of Western Illinois State Teachers College as Macomb, is Walter Piety Morgan who graduated from Indiana State with the class of 1895. He received the degree of A. B. from Indiana University in 1900 and Ph. M. from the University of Chicago. Miami (Ohio) conferred an honorary D. Ed. on him in 1926. His long career in education began with a position as a high-school department head in Terre Haute, followed in turn by an instructorship at State, and the city superintendency in Terre Haute. Later, he taught in secondary schools in the city of Chicago and from there in 1912, went to Macomb to assume the presidency of Western State. For four years he served as secretary of the American Association of Teachers Colleges and was the president of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools for one year. His publications deal with growth and attendance in state normal schools. He has also written manuals for use in the study of arithmetic.

Index of Authors

Abell, E. L., Leisure-Time Activities for Teachers, 6-7 (September).
 Akers, Jeanne, Headaches? Yes, But I Wouldn't Have Missed Them, 102 (May).
 Allyn, W. P., Zoology, 28-29 (November).
 Austin, Wilma, Teaching in One's Home Town, 97, 119-120 (May).
 Baker, Frank E., Teachers of Our Times, 136, 142 (July).
 Banks, Mary Alice, Project Teaching on an Institution-Wide Basis, 52-53 (January).
 Bedwell, Frieda F., A Study in the Background Scenes in the Life of John Milton, 138 (July).
 Benson, Marion C., A Bibliography for Education Nutrition, 61-65 (January).
 Bonney, Merl E., Stimulating Community Participation and Initiative in Prospective Teachers, 90-94 (March).

Brollier, Richard A., An Occupational Survey of Jasper, Indiana, 138 (July).
 Brooks, Eleanor, Common Sense Works Best, 98 (May).
 Carney, Helen, Rankin's Library is Functional, 111-112, 118-119 (May).
 Cissna, Ruth, Teaching at Mooseheart Offers Unusual Experiences, 104 (May).
 Council, Sara, Why Teach?, 108 (May).
 Cox, Herald R., Recent Advances in Virus and Rickettsial Research, 122-125 (July).
 Crabb, Alfred L., Teacher Education in Service, 126-127, 141 (July).
 Crawford, Madelyn, Nutrition Education Workshop, 49, 72 (January).
 Danhauer, Louise, Home Economics for the Blind, 105, 118 (May).
 Edwards, Elsie M., Educational Needs of Hard-of-Hearing Children in the Public Schools of Indiana, 140 (July).
 Ellis, Joy, Family Relationships and Health in the First Grade, 107-108 (May).
 Fleming, D. F., Can We Create a Workable Economic Democracy?, 77-81 (March).
 Fleming, D. F., Shall We Lose the Peace Again?, 74-76, 94 (March).
 Fleming, D. F., Steps Toward Peace, 86-89, 96 (March).
 Fleming, D. F., Ways Out of War, 82-85, 95 (March).
 Gammage, Grady, The College and Teacher Education, 132-135, 141 (July).
 Goodykoontz, Bess, The Effects of the Bigelow Commission on Teacher Education, 137, 142 (July).
 Gray, William S., Evaluation in Teacher Education, 130-131 (July).
 Grinnell, John Erle, Athletics and Physical Education, 8, 23 (September).
 Herndon, Norma, It Takes Ingenuity, 101 (May).
 Hodde, Doris, Never a Dull Moment During One's First Year, 103 (May).
 Hunter, Juanita Stutz, I Was Too Idealistic, 106 (May).
 Kittle, Marian A., J. R. Shannon, A Survey of the Commuting-Teacher Situation in the Township Schools in Indiana, 1-5, 24 (September).
 Koch, G. David, Geography and World Order, 31-32 (November).
 LaDuke, David Leon, A Study of Non-Promotion in the First Eight Grades in Sullivan County from 1932 to 1940, 140 (July).
 Larr, Alfred L., A County Speech and Hearing Conservation Program, 139-140 (July).
 Leech, Noyes E., Economic Bases for Japan's Military Fascism, 15-18, 20 (September).
 Lyda, John W., Problem of Juvenile Delinquency, 44-45 (November).
 McDougal, Russell, Science Education in the Postwar World, 113-115 (May).
 Mackell, J. F., The Role of Physics in Education, 26, 41 (November).
 Malan, Clement T., Indiana State Teachers College—Its Past and Future, 121, 131 (July).
 Miles, Victor P., An Investigation to Discover a Better than Normal Way to Teach Reading in a Fifth-Grade History Class, 141 (July).
 Miller, Harlan H., Toward Community Understanding, 128-129 (July).
 Miller, Victor C., Basic English, 9-14 (September).
 Mitchell, Waldo F., Postwar Policy Respecting Cartels and Other Monopolies, 33-41 (November).
 Moran, Mary E., A Tribute to a Rare Personality: A Scholar and a Gentleman, 116-117 (May).
 Noyes, Bessie, The Division of Physiology and Hygiene, 29, 48 (November).
 Oberholtzer, E. E., Deep in the Heart of Texas, 46-48 (November).
 Oberholtzer, E. E., Development of a University within a Public-School System, 69-72 (January).
 Oberholtzer, E. E., Oklahoma Bound, 19-20 (September).
 Oberholtzer, E. E., Some Counsel for Young Teachers, 109-110, 115 (May).
 Reed, Mary D., The Laboratory School and the Workshop, 50-51 (January).
 Seller, Mary, Teaching Has Many Facets, 100, 106 (May).
 Seville, Charles, What I Expected—Only More So, 99, 117 (May).
 Shannon, J. R., Marian A. Kittle, A Survey of the Commuting-Teacher Situation in the Township Schools in Indiana, 1-5, 24 (September).
 Sister Mary Roberta, An Analysis of One Hundred Elementary School Readers to Show the Influence of Changing Objectives, 138-139 (July).
 Smith, Ben H., Botany as a Subject Field in Education, 27, 41 (November).
 Wadsworth, Elsie, A Letter to Parents of Pre-School Children, 21-22 (September).

Welborn, E. L., International Education, 42-43, 48 (November).
 Wilkinson, Paul D., Chemistry, 30, 41 (November).

Index of Titles

Athletics: Athletics and Physical Education, John Erle Grinnell, 8, 23 (September).
Autobiography: Deep in the Heart of Texas, E. E. Oberholtzer, 46-48 (November).
Autobiography: Development of a University within a Public-School System, E. E. Oberholtzer, 69-72 (January).
Autobiography: Oklahoma Bound, E. E. Oberholtzer, 19-20 (September).
Autobiography: Some Counsel for Young Teachers, E. E. Oberholtzer, 109-110, 115 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Common Sense Works Best, Eleanor Brooks, 98 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Headaches? Yes, But I Wouldn't Have Missed Them, Jeanne Akers, 102 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Home Economics for the Blind, Louise Danhauer, 105, 118 (May).
Beginning Teacher: I Was Too Idealistic, Juanita Stutz Hunter, 106 (May).
Beginning Teacher: It Takes Ingenuity, Norma Herndon, 101 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Never a Dull Moment During One's First Year, Doris Hodde, 103 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Teaching at Mooseheart Offers Unusual Experiences, Ruth Cissna, 104 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Teaching Has Many Facets, Mary Seller, 100, 106 (May).
Beginning Teacher: Teaching in One's Home Town, Wilma Austin, 97, 119-120 (May).
Beginning Teacher: What I Expected—Only More So, Charles Seville, 99, 117 (May).
Biography: A Tribute to a Rare Personality; A Scholar and a Gentleman, Mary E. Moran, 116-117 (May).
Cartels and Monopolies: Postwar Policy Respecting Cartels and Other Monopolies, Waldo F. Mitchell, 33-41 (November).
Education: Education for Veterans, 24 (September).
Family Relationships: Family Relationships and Health in the First Grade, Joy Ellis, 107-108 (May).

Fascism: Economic Bases for Japan's Military Fascism, Noyes E. Leech, 15-18, 20 (September).
Grade-School Promotions: A Study of Non Promotion in the First Eight Grades in Sullivan County from 1932 to 1940, David Leon LaDuke, 140 (July).
International Education: International Education, E. L. Welborn, 42-43, 48 (November).
International Language: Basic English, Victor C. Miller, 9-14 (September).
John Milton: A Study in the Background Scenes in the Life of John Milton, Freida F. Bedwell, 138 (July).
Juvenile Delinquency: Problem of Juvenile Delinquency, John W. Lyda, 44-45 (November).
Leisure-Time Activities: Leisure-Time Activities for Teachers, E. L. Abell, 6-7 (September).
Libraries: Rankin's Library is Functional, Helen Carney, 111-112, 118-119 (May).
Medical Research: Recent Advances in Virus and Rickettsial Research, Herald R. Cox, 122-125 (July).
Nutrition Education: A Bibliography for Education Nutrition, Marion C. Benson, 61-68 (January).
Nutrition Education: The Laboratory School and the Workshop, Mary D. Reed, 50-51 (January).
Nutrition Education: Nutrition Education Workshop, Madelyn Crawford, 49, 72 (January).
Nutrition Education: Project Teaching on an Institution-Wide Basis, Mary Alice Banks, 52-53 (January).
Nutrition Education: Suitable Nutrition Experiences for the Elementary School, 54-60, 72 (January).
Occupational Survey: An Occupational Survey of Jasper, Indiana, Richard A. Brollier, 138 (July).
Parent-Teacher Co-operation: A Letter to Parents of Pre-School Children, Elsie Wadsworth, 21-22 (September).
Reading: An Investigation to Discover a Better than Normal Way to Teach Reading in a Fifth-Grade History Class, Victor P. Miles, 141 (July).
School Readers: An Analysis of One Hundred Elementary School Readers to Show the Influence of Changing Objectives, Sister Mary Roberta, 138-139 (July).
Science Education: Botany as a Subject Field in Education, Ben H. Smith, 27, 41 (November).

Science Education: Chemistry, Paul D. Wilkinson, 30, 41 (November).
Science Education: The Division of Physiology and Hygiene, Bessie Noyes, 29, 48 (November).
Science Education: Geography and World Order, G. David Koch, 31-32 (November).
Science Education: The Role of Physics in Education, J. F. Mackell, 26, 41 (November).
Science Education: Science Education in the Postwar World, Russell McDougal, 113-115 (May).
Science Education: Zoology, W. P. Allyn, 28-29 (November).
Speech and Hearing: A County Speech and Hearing Conservation Program, Alfred L. Larr, 139-140 (July).
Speech and Hearing: Educational Needs of Hard-of-Hearing Children in the Public Schools of Indiana, Elsie M. Edwards, 140 (July).
Student-Community Participation: Stimulating Community Participation and Initiative in Prospective Teachers, Merl E. Bonney, 90-94 (March).
Teacher Education: The College and Teacher Education, Grady Gammage, 132-135, 141 (July).
Teacher Education: The Effects of the Bigelow Commission on Teacher Education, Bess Goodykoontz, 137, 142 (July).
Teacher Education: Evaluation in Teacher Education, William S. Gray, 150-151 (July).
Teacher Education: Indiana State Teachers College—Its Past and Future, Clement T. Malan, 121, 151 (July).
Teacher Education: Teacher Education in Service, Alfred L. Crabb, 126-127, 141 (July).
Teacher Education: Teachers of Our Times, Frank E. Baker, 136, 142 (July).
Teacher Education: Toward Community Understanding, Harlan H. Miller, 128-129 (July).
Teaching: Why Teach?, Sara Council, 108 (May).
World Peace: Can We Create a Workable Economic Democracy? D. F. Fleming, 77-81 (March).
World Peace: Conditions for an Enduring Peace, 23 (September).
World Peace: Shall We Lose the Peace Again?, D. F. Fleming, 74-76, 94 (March).
World Peace: Steps Toward Peace, D. F. Fleming, 86-89, 96 (March).
World Peace: Ways Out of War, D. F. Fleming, 82-85, 95 (March).

